Entertainment and hospitality group byPeterandPauls.com will be operating two restaurants, all event catering, room service and the Peregrine SkyBar at the 404-room Hotel X Toronto, which is scheduled to open this year on the Exhibition Place grounds.

According to Hotel X Toronto president Henry Kallan, byPeterandPauls.com was a natural fit for the property.

"At the Library Collection\*, we are known first and foremost for personalized service to our guests. We found that same dedication to flawless execution in byPeterandPauls.com," he explains. "This is an award-winning Toronto-based company with a stellar reputation and years of experience. Most importantly, they understood our desire to create innovative stand-alone restaurants that will give the people of Toronto a new culinary destination right on our waterfront."

Peter Eliopoulos, CEO of byPeterandPauls.com, is enthusiastic about the opportunity afforded by Hotel X Toronto. "We are excited to introduce our guests to a variety of different dining options at the property," he said. These options include:

- Maxx's, an all-day dining room located on the south side of the building, featuring terraces with unobstructed views of the lake and an open concept kitchen.
- Petros 82, a Mediterranean restaurant featuring fresh seafood and natural ingredients. "As a Canadian of Greek heritage, it will be a particular pleasure to bring fine Greek dining to this city," said Eliopoulos.
- Peregrine SkyBar, destined to become a "must see" for visitors due to its outstanding 30th floor views of Lake Ontario and the cityscape of Toronto.

According to Eliopoulos, "Peregrine SkyBar will have specialty cocktails created by our mixologist. The atmosphere will be vibrant, urban and lively – just like Toronto."

Hotel X Toronto will also have more than 26,000-square-feet of meeting space, much of which will have a water view.
