CAFE BOULUD

Daniel Boulud's Four Seasons' restaurant is offering an $89 per person Easter Sunday brunch from 11 am to 3 pm. The fairly sizeable menu includes options like duck and waffle, smoked salmon benedict, Canadian oysters and eggs meurette with foie gras.

DRAKE COMMISSARY

The Drake's Feaster promo is back at three of their Toronto restaurants this year, starting with their Junction commissary space. The Easter Sunday dinner menu includes a mustard crusted sirloin roast, veggies and Yorkshire pudding (or roasted cauliflower if you're vegetarian), with a dark chocolate crèmeux dessert ($39 per person).

DRAKE HOTEL

The Drake Hotel's version of the Easter Sunday dinner includes roast sirloin beef and heirloom carrots with peas (or roasted squash for the vegetarian crowd), plus a dark chocolate crèmeux dessert ($39).

DRAKE ONE FIFTY

The Drake One Fifty's Easter Sunday dinner features a roasted Ontario artisan sirloin with veggies and a yorkshire pudding (or, for the vegans, a leek and beet wellington), plus dessert ($39).

From 11 am to 3 pm on Easter Sunday, the newly-opened Hotel X's restaurant Maxx's Kitchen will offer a brunch buffet featuring maple-mustard striploin, omelettes, Belgian waffles, truffle mac and cheese, and more ($60, kids $30). www.hotelxtoronto.com

TOCA

The Ritz-Carlton's restaurant is offering both brunch and dinner on Easter Sunday. First up, there's a brunch buffet featuring a dizzying array of options, including a sustainable seafood bar, pasta with boar meatballs, eggs Benedict, and roasted leg of lamb.
