Owner and founder Peter Eliopoulos, who takes a hands-on approach to every facet of the multi-divisional company, knows the importance of uniqueness and quality when it comes to a special event — and that's precisely why byPeterandPauls.com was developed.

It's a place where only the finest companies in the hospitality and entertainment industry have been gathered together to produce an exclusive and memorable function every time. It's also a place where customized planning is the norm — byPeterandPauls.com is more than happy to tailor their combination of food, gift giving, entertainment, decor and service to meet an individual's needs.

The company truly defines the one-stop shop for event planning — and it starts with the venues.

There have been 59,550 parties and 5,272,000 satisfied guests taking part in a PeterandPauls experience since 1982.

The state-of-the-art 63,000-sq.-ft. Paramount, which opened in June, 2004, can accommodate up to 1,650 guests and offers five function rooms, each with a separate entrance and private foyer. Equipped with the latest in technology, including DVD packages, high speed Internet, image scanners and LCD monitors, the venue has been designed to host any corporate event, fund raiser, trade show, meeting or conference.

The elegant Bellagio, with three rooms and seating for up to 800 guests, offers the perfect atmosphere for a special event or for any corporate function. The Manor, situated on the Carrying Place Golf &

Country Club, offers more than 34,000 sq. ft. of indoor and outdoor function space. With an abundance of natural light and numerous picturesque views, it's the perfect spot for any function or corporate agenda.

If you've got the venue and just need the food and entertainment, Tabletalk is an off-premise catering company that offers the ultimate conceptualization and planning in creative and formal events, while S4 offers the perfect compliment to any occasion — an interactive DJ entertainment service.

To capture the memories, try Colelli Studios, a photography and video production company that specializes in wedding portraits, engagement pictures, bar/bat mitzvahs, family portraits, proms, corporate events and much more.

And after the success of your corporate event planned through byPeterandPauls.com, visit Search Engine, an advertising and design firm, to help your business with its strategic planning, e-ads, web development, direct mail pieces and corporate identity.
